SAVINGS BANK- RULES & REGULATIONS

- The Savings Bank Account should be used to route transactions of only non-business/non-commercial nature. In the event of occurrence of such transactions or any other such transactions that may be construed as dubious or undesirable, the Bank reserves the right to unilaterally freeze operations in such accounts.
- Interest on the savings bank deposit is calculated at a rate fixed by RBI. The present rate is 4% and RBI has revised the method of application. With effect from 01.04.2010, interest shall be paid on daily product method on quarterly basis.
- The balance in the account must adhere to the minimum quarterly average balance stipulation laid down by the Bank and communicated to you at the time of opening of the account. Non-maintenance of this quarterly average balance will attract applicable penalty on a quarterly basis and on a date determined by the Bank.
- If there are no transactions in the account for a period of two years, the account will be treated as an inoperative account. The customer should thus transact on the account periodically, so that it does not become inoperative. In case there are no customer induced debit, credit and/or third party transactions in the account, it may be classified as inoperative. The service charges levied by the Bank and/or interest credited by the Bank would not be considered as customer induced transactions.
- The Bank reserves the right to close the accounts in case of either of the following. 1) In the account balance being zero for more than 6 months since the date of account opening; or 2) If the balance in the account has become zero and remains so for 6 months. However, before taking steps for closing the account, Bank shall give appropriate notice and account holders are entitled to give their reply and rectify.
- Satisfactory conduct of the account entails maintaining stipulated minimum quarterly average balance as well as sufficient balance to honour cheques issued to third parties. If there are high incidences to the contrary, the Bank reserves the right to close the account under intimation to the customer.
- Any special instructions, both financial and non-financial in nature, like standing instructions, stop payment instructions, issuance of cheque books, Demand Drafts, pay Orders, requests for hot carding ATM/DEBIT Cards, Issuance of duplicate card/ PIN must be communicated in writing and/or via valid Internet Banking User ID (wherever such an option is available subject to terms and conditions applicable for such facility), otherwise it shall not be binding on the Bank to comply with such instructions.
- The Savings Bank Account entitles free access to Axis Bank ATMs, Internet banking and Tele banking unless otherwise stated.
- Availing of the Anywhere Banking facility and the At Par Cheque facility is contingent upon the limits and service charges stipulated for these facilities.
- Any change of address should be immediately communicated in writing to the Bank.
- Opening of the Saving Account tantamount to deemed acceptance of the aforesaid rule & regulations as well as the fact of being informed about the various service charges being levied by the Bank and the terms and conditions guiding related products and services.
