1. Objective of the Policy

Axis Bank offers high level of service standards for customers. In the event, for some reasons beyond the control of the bank or inadvertently, the bank is unable to meet the service levels committed in the dealings with individual customer, this compensation policy will be applicable. The policy is based on the principles of transparency and fairness in the treatment of our customers.

2. Scope

Policy compensates the customer not only for the financial loss incurred by him/her due to deficiency in the services offered by the Bank but or any act of omission directly attributable to the bank. The policy does not cover and is not applicable in respect of claims made by customers on account of opportunity losses or damages or claims for reputational loss. The Compensation policy is therefore, designed to cover areas relating to unauthorized debiting of account, payment of interest to customers for delayed collection of cheques /instruments, payment of cheques after acknowledgement of stop payment instructions, remittances within India, foreign exchange services, delay in release of movable/immovable property documents, removal of charges registered with any registry for personal loans¹ given to individuals which consist of (a) consumer credit², (b) education loan, (c) loans given for creation/ enhancement of immovable assets (e.g., housing, etc.), and (d) loans given for investment in financial assets (shares, debentures, etc.).

Policy is also applicable for resolving issues related to the 3rd party products like Insurance and Mutual fund products distributed by Bank.

Following areas are covered in the compensation of policy of the bank

2.1 Erroneous debiting of account

- I. If the Bank has raised an erroneous direct debit to an account the entry will be reversed after due verification. Such actions will be taken as and when highlighted by the customer or when self-identified by the bank.
- II. In the event, the erroneous debit has resulted in a financial loss to the customer by way of reduction in the minimum balance applicable for payment of interest on savings bank deposit or payment of additional interest to the Bank in a loan account, overdraft facility or credit card or any charges levied for balance falling below the minimum balance requirement or any charges levied for return of cheques due to shortfall in balance, the Bank will compensate the customer to the extent of direct financial loss.
- III. The customer should approach the Bank within a maximum period of one month from the date of the erroneous debit.

¹ Please refer to annexure for details regarding Personal loans

² Please refer to annexure for details regarding Consumer credit

- IV. In case the verification of the entry reported to be erroneous by the customer does not involve a third party, the Bank shall complete the process of verification within a maximum period of 7 working days from the date of reporting of the erroneous debit.
- V. In case the verification involves a third party, the Bank shall complete the verification process within a maximum period of one month from the date of reporting of the erroneous transaction by the customer.
- VI. The Bank reserves its right to debit the customer's account for reversing the amounts in case a wrong credit is posted to the account without payment of any compensation.

2.2 Debits towards Service Charges

The Bank would debit the customer's account with any applicable service charge as per the schedule of charges notified by it. In the event, the Bank levies any charges in violation of the arrangement it will reverse the same when pointed out by the customer, or when self-identified, subject to verification of the agreed terms and conditions. Any consequential financial loss to the customer will be compensated as provided under Para 2.1 point Sub point ii.

2.3 Payment of Cheques after Acknowledgement of Stop Payment Instructions

In case a cheque has been paid after stop payment instruction is acknowledged by the Bank, the transaction will be reversed and value-dated credit will be given to protect the interest of the customer. Such debits will be reversed within 7 working days of the customer intimating the transaction to the Bank. Any consequential financial loss to the customer will be compensated as provided under Para 2.1 sub- point ii.

2.4 Payment of cheque with mismatch in Positive Pay details

In the event of cheque being paid in CTS clearing despite mismatch in payee name or amount on the cheque image with positive pay details submitted by the customers, such transaction will be reversed and value dated credit will be given to the customer. Such debits will be reversed within 7 working days of the customer intimating the incident to the Bank. These reversals will not be applicable if the customer has provided the confirmation for honouring the cheque even though there is mismatch in positive pay details previously submitted by the customer.

2.5 Debit of account, despite revocation of the NACH debit mandate with the Bank by the customer

In event, a debit has been made to the customers' account, despite the revocation of the debit mandate with the Bank by the customer, the Bank shall reverse the transactions and shall give value dated credit to protect the interest of the customer. Such debits shall be reversed within 1 calendar day from the date of transaction (T+1 calendar day) (T represents the date of transaction). In event the Bank fails to reverse the transaction within the said period, compensation shall be payable for the amount of INR 100/- per day for each day of delay beyond T+1 calendar days.

2.6 Funds transfer using NEFT & RTGS

Penal interest to be paid by the Bank in case of delay in crediting the beneficiary customers account or on delayed return of un-credited amount to the remitter/remitting bank. The definition of delay in this case would be changed to "Time of Credit"

If the NEFT transaction is not credited or returned within two hours after batch settlement / RTGS transaction not credited within 30 minutes from the receipt of credit, then the bank is liable to pay penal interest to the affected customer at the current RBI LAF Repo Rate plus two percent for the period of delay / till the date of credit or refund, as the case may be, is afforded to the customers' account without waiting for a specific claim to be lodged by the customer in this regard. In case of any delay in returning the failed payment, the originating customer is eligible to receive compensation at current repo rate plus 2%. The penal interest payment on NEFT & RTGS transactions is guided by the relevant clause in the Penal interest policy forming a part of the CMS policy on collections and payments.

Remittances in India

Compensation for delay in collection of instruments is as described in the Bank's Cheque Collection Policy, and provides for:

- a) Payment of interest for delayed collection of local and outstation cheques,
- b) Cheques/instruments lost in transit / in clearing process or at paying Bank's branch. 6.2 NECS / ECS / NEFT - For NECS / ECS / NEFT credits, the Bank will pay penal interest at the current RBI Liquidity Adjustment Facility (LAF) Repo Rate plus two per cent from the due date of credit till the date of actual credit for any delayed credit to the beneficiaries' account on account of error, negligence or fraud on the part of any employee of the Bank. Penal interest shall be credited to the beneficiary's account even if no claim is lodged. In the event of delay in return of the funds transfer instruction for any reason whatsoever, the Bank shall refund the amount together with interest at the current RBI LAF Repo Rate plus two per cent till the date of refund.

For a delay in crediting RTGS/NEFT to the beneficiary beyond the timeline as per the procedural/ regulatory guidelines, the Bank shall pay the customer penal interest at the current repo rate plus two percent per day. In case of a delay in the credit with the credit passed on the same day, compensation shall be paid for one day. The penal interest shall be paid to the customer even if no claim is lodged by the customer to that effect.

2.7 Failure to execute Direct Debits / ECS Debits/ Standing Instructions

The Bank undertakes to carry out Direct Debits / ECS debits / standing instructions of customers in time subject to the following:

The Bank shall not be liable to compensate customers for delayed credit/non-availability of any service, if some unforeseen event (including but not limited to civil commotion, sabotage, accident, fire, natural disasters or other "Acts of God", war, damage to the Bank's facilities or of its correspondent bank(s), absence of the usual means of communication or all types of transportation, etc.) beyond the control of the Bank which may prevent it from performing its obligations within the specified service delivery parameters.

5. Customers' responsibility

Bank will not be responsible for the loss to the customers due to customer's lack of caution in safe-keeping the Cheque book, passbook, cards, PIN, unsecured movement of duly issued cheques or other security information and not following "Do's and Don'ts" issued by the Bank, until the Bank has been notified by the customer. Or customer not being able to collect movable/immovable property documents after Bank making them available at the preferred loan center within 30 days post full repayment/settlement and closure of loan account.

Wherever Bank has facilitated removal of charges /hypothecation by issuing no dues certificate and customer has not got the charges/hypothecation released with registrar, Bank will not be responsible.

Customer acts fraudulently and/or acts without reasonable care which has resulted in loss to him/her. Bank will also not be responsible for the losses arising out of misuse of lost PIN, compromise of passwords or confidential information, until the time the Bank has been notified of such loss/compromise and has taken steps to prevent its misuse.

5.1 Submission of Positive Pay details

- Bank has enabled Positive Pay platform to customers for submitting the cheque details at the time of issuance of the cheques for value of Rs.50,000 & above. In case of any fraud, wherein the drawer's signature and cheque leaf are genuine and positive pay details are not submitted by the customer, then Bank is not liable to compensate the customer. In such cases, RBI will not entertain complaints under the Panel for Resolution of Disputes (PRD) mechanism at the CTS Grids. For e.g., Customer has issued the cheque with different payee name or amount and fraudster has altered these details and there is no lapse from Bank's end at the time of clearing the cheque.
- RBI has allowed member Banks to make Positive Pay details mandatory if cheque value is Rs.5,00,000/- and above (Please refer to the RBI Circular No. RBI/2020-1/41/DPSS.CO.RPPD.No.309/04.07.2005/2020-21 dated September 25th, 2020). However, Bank has decided to implement this clause w.e.f. 01.09.2021 post which customer must mandatorily submit Positive Pay details if cheque value is Rs.5,00,000/- & above. In the absence of Positive Pay details for cheque with value Rs.5,00,000/- & above (i.e., due to non-submission of details by the customer), the cheque will be returned to the presenting Bank when the cheque is presented through CTS clearing.

6. Government Investment Products, Pension Scheme (APY and NPS) and Pension

As per the guidelines from PFRDA vide Circular No. PFRDA/02/05/104/0001/2017-Rns-POPs dated 15th September' 2017, all POPs need to adhere to the timelines for processing of Customer requests. The request may be New Account opening / Subsequent Contribution / Shifting PRAN request / exit request / any other kind of customer request. The list of Service Requests with the timelines are defined in the attached Schedule along with the compensation to be paid in case of delay.

In case of delays, the POP is liable to pay a compensation to the customer at the defined rate and credit the same to the Customers PRAN.

To meet the regulatory process, the following framework towards payment of compensation to customers is put in place:

- I. In case it is identified that the Branch has delayed sending the request to the CRS, Branch will immediately be informed, and confirmation taken from branch on accountability to pay compensation to the customer.
- II. In case CRS delays the processing of the request, the accountability to pay compensation to the customer lies with CRS.

The data of such delays will be published to Senior Management on a periodic basis and the same will be presented to the CSCB.

As per the guidelines from Central Pension Accounting office vide Circular RBI/2021-22/08 DGBA.GBD. No. S-1/31.02.007/2021-22 dated 17th May 2021, all Agency Banks need to adhere to the timelines for processing of Pension disbursement.

In case of delays, the Pension paying banks should compensate the pensioner for delay in crediting pension/ arrears thereof at a fixed interest rate of 8 per cent per annum for the delay after the due date of payment and the compensation shall be credited to the pensioner's account automatically without any claim from the pensioner on the same day when the bank affords credit for revised pension/ pension arrears, in respect of all delayed pension payments made since October 1, 2008.

With respect to the above, a framework for Compensation for Pensioners Customers is put in place:

- I. In case it is identified that the Branch has delayed sending the request to CRS, Branch will immediately be informed, and confirmation taken from branch on accountability to pay compensation to the Pensioners.
- II. In case CRS delays the processing of the request, the accountability to pay Compensation to the Customer lies with CRS. Product will have an oversight on the same.

The compensation will be calculated at the rate specified in the Central Pension Accounting office vide Circular RBI/2021-22/08 DGBA.GBD. No. S-1/31.02.007/2021-22. It is calculated at a fixed interest rate of 8 per cent per annum for the delay after the due date of payment and the compensation shall be credited to the pensioner's account.
