INTRODUCTION

The Customer Rights Policy of Axis Bank spells out the rights of the customer and the responsibilities of the Bank. The Policy applies to all products and services offered by Axis Bank or its agents, whether provided across the counter, over phone, by post, through interactive electronic devices, on internet or by any other method.

1. Right to Fair Treatment

In pursuance of the above Right, Axis Bank will -

i) Promote good and fair banking practices by following minimum standards in all dealings with the customers
ii) Promote a fair and equitable relationship between the Bank and the customer;
iii) Train Bank staff attending to the customers, adequately and appropriately;
iv) Ensure that staff members attend to customers and their business promptly and courteously;
v) Treat all customers fairly and not discriminate against any customer on grounds such as gender, age, religion, caste, literacy, economic status physical ability, etc.
   - Axis Bank may, however, have special schemes or products which are specifically designed for members of a target market group or may use defensible, commercially acceptable economic rationale for customer differentiation.
   - Axis Bank may also have schemes or products as part of an affirmative action such as for women or backward classes.
   - Such schemes / products will not tantamount to unfair discrimination. The rationale for such special schemes or terms will be explained by the Bank wherever required;
vi) Ensure that the above principle is applied while offering all products and services;
vii) Ensure that the products and services offered are in accordance with relevant laws and regulations;

While it shall be the endeavour of the Bank to provide its customers with hassle free and fair treatment, the Bank would expect its customers to behave courteously and honestly in their dealings with the Bank.

It shall also be the Bank’s endeavour to encourage its customers to approach the Bank’s internal grievance redressal machinery and approach alternate fora after exhausting all their remedies under the Bank’s internal grievance mechanism.

2. Right to Transparency, Fair and Honest Dealing

In pursuance of the above Right, Axis Bank will -

i) Ensure complete transparency so that the customer can have a better understanding of what he or she can reasonably / fairly expect from the Bank;

ii) Ensure that the Bank’s dealings with the customer rest on ethical principles of equity, integrity and transparency;

iii) Provide customers with clear information about its products and services, terms and conditions, and the interest rates / service charges in simple and easily understandable language, and with sufficient information so that the customer could be reasonably expected to make an appropriate and informed choice of product;

iv) Ensure that all terms and conditions are fair and set out the respective rights, liabilities and obligations clearly and as far as possible in plain and simple language;

v) Make known the key risks associated with the product as well as any features that may especially disadvantage the customer to him/her. Most Important Terms and Conditions (MITC) associated with the product or service will be clearly brought to the notice of the customer while offering the product. In general, it will be ensured that such terms will not inhibit a customer’s future choice.

vi) Provide information on interest rates, fees and charges either on the Notice Board in the branches or website or through help-lines or help-desk and where appropriate the customer will be informed directly; vii) Display the tariff Schedule on the website www.axisbank.com and a copy of it will be made available at every branch for customer’s perusal. Also the Bank will display in its branches a notice about the availability of the Tariff Schedule at the branch; viii) Give details, in their Tariff Schedule, of all charges, if any, applicable to the products and services chosen by customer;

ix) Inform the customer of any change in the terms and conditions through any one or more of the following channels one month prior to the revised terms and conditions becoming effective:
   a. Letter
   b. Statements of account
   c. SMSs
   d. E-mail
x) Ensure that such changes are usually made with prospective effect after giving notice of one month. If the Bank has made any change without giving such notice which is favorable to the customer, it will notify the change within 30 days of such change. If the change is adverse to the customer, prior notice of minimum 30 days will be provided and the customer may be provided options, to close the account or switch to any other eligible account without having to pay the revised charge or interest within 60 days of such notice. Post 60 days of the notice, the changes may be effected retrospectively wherever applicable.
xii) Provide information about the penalties leviable in case of non-observance/breach of any of the terms and conditions governing the product/services chosen by the customer;
