 - (i) He / she should not be the owner of the NBFC [i.e., share holdings (single or jointly with relatives, associates, etc.) should not exceed 50%]
 - (ii) He / she should not be related to the promoter of the NBFC.
 - (iii) He / she should not be a full-time employee in the NBFC.

- (iv) The concerned NBFC should not be a borrower of the Bank.
6. Every Director of the Bank is prohibited from being a Director of any other banking company in accordance with the provisions of Section 16 of the Banking Regulation Act, 1949.
 7. Every Director of the Bank shall provide such confirmations / declarations / undertakings / information / documents / certificates, as may be requested by the Bank, in compliance with applicable laws, as amended, from time to time.
 8. Every Director of the Bank shall obtain prior approval of the Bank before accepting any role / directorship in any entity.
 9. Every Director shall ensure compliance with the provisions of Regulation 17A and Regulation 26 of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 as well as Section 165 of the Companies Act, 2013, as amended from time to time, with respect to maximum number of directorships and committee memberships that can be held by him / her. Please refer Annexure 'E' attached herewith.
 10. Every Director of the Bank is prohibited from engaging in any activity that interferes with his / her fiduciary responsibilities towards the Bank, or is in conflict with or prejudicial to the interest of the Bank like simultaneous engagement or employment or directorship with client companies or its subsidiaries, or undertaking any activity which would enhance or support a competitor's position.
 11. Whilst all conflicts of interest are not necessarily prohibited or harmful to the Bank, disclosure of timely and complete, actual or perceived or potential conflicts, should be made to the Board for their information and necessary action and the interested Director of the Bank shall recuse himself from participating in the deliberations at the meeting and voting thereon.
 12. If the Board has reason to believe or has knowledge of any development that may give rise to a situation of conflict of interest vis a vis any Director of the Bank, it may advise the concerned Director of the Bank to forthwith give a declaration in writing, clarifying the situation of conflict of interest, if any.
 13. Non-disclosure of any such actual or perceived or potential conflict of interest by any Director of the Bank would be treated as a misconduct if the same is conscious and deliberate (not inadvertent) and the Board may decide on an appropriate action for the same. The Board may post facto ratify an inadvertent non-disclosure of actual or perceived or potential conflict of interest by any Director of the Bank and the reason for such non-disclosure would be duly incorporated in the minutes of the Board meeting at which such waiver is granted.
 14. If in the opinion of the Board, a conflict of interest is significant, ongoing and irreconcilable and is likely to impede the ability of a Director of the Bank to carry out his assigned role / responsibilities, the Board may recommend reassigning the allocated role / responsibilities.

C. SKILL DEVELOPMENT

Every Director of the Bank shall acquaint himself / herself with the Bank's businesses, strategies, operations, organisation structure, internal policies and other areas of relevance to enable them to discharge their duties effectively.

- 5) safeguard the interests of all stakeholders, particularly the minority shareholders;
- 6) balance the conflicting interest of the stakeholders;
- 7) determine appropriate levels of remuneration of executive directors, key managerial personnel and senior management and have a prime role in appointing and where necessary recommend removal of executive directors, key managerial personnel and senior management;
- 8) moderate and arbitrate in the interest of the Bank as a whole, in situations of conflict between management and shareholder's interest.

III. Duties:

The independent directors shall —

- 1) undertake appropriate induction and regularly update and refresh their skills, knowledge and familiarity with the Bank;
- 2) seek appropriate clarification or amplification of information and, where necessary, take and follow appropriate professional advice and opinion of outside experts at the expense of the Bank;
- 3) strive to attend all meetings of the Board of Directors and of the Board committees of which he is a member;
- 4) participate constructively and actively in the committees of the Board in which they are chairpersons or members;
- 5) strive to attend the general meetings of the Bank;
- 6) where they have concerns about the running of the Bank or a proposed action, ensure that these are addressed by the Board and, to the extent that they are not resolved, insist that their concerns are recorded in the minutes of the Board meeting;
- 7) keep themselves well informed about the Bank and the external environment in which it operates;
- 8) not to unfairly obstruct the functioning of an otherwise proper Board or committee of the Board;
- 9) pay sufficient attention and ensure that adequate deliberations are held before approving related party transactions and assure themselves that the same are in the interest of the Bank;
- 10) ascertain and ensure that the Bank has an adequate and functional vigil mechanism and to ensure that the interests of a person who uses such mechanism are not prejudicially affected on account of such use;
- 11) report concerns about unethical behaviour, actual or suspected fraud or violation of the Bank's code of conduct or ethics policy;
- 12) act within their authority, assist in protecting the legitimate interests of the Bank, shareholders and its employees;
- 13) not disclose confidential information, including commercial secrets, technologies, advertising and sales promotion plans, unpublished price sensitive information, unless such disclosure is expressly approved by the Board or required by law.

IV. Separate meetings:

- 1) The independent directors of the Bank shall hold at least one meeting in a financial year, without the attendance of non-independent directors and members of management;
- 2) All the independent directors of the Bank shall strive to be present at such meeting;
- 3) The meeting shall:
 - a) review the performance of non-independent directors and the Board as a whole;
 - b) review the performance of the Chairperson of the Bank, taking into account the views of executive directors and non-executive directors;
 - c) assess the quality, quantity and timeliness of flow of information between the Bank management and the Board that is necessary for the Board to effectively and reasonably perform their duties.

Duties of directors - Section 166 of the Companies Act, 2013

- 1) Subject to the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013, the Director of the Bank shall act in accordance with the articles of the Bank.
- 2) A director of the Bank shall act in good faith in order to promote the objects of the Bank for the benefit of its members as a whole, and in the best interests of the Bank, its employees, the shareholders, the community and for the protection of environment.
- 3) A director of the Bank shall exercise his duties with due and reasonable care, skill and diligence and shall exercise independent judgment.
- 4) A director of the Bank shall not involve in a situation in which he may have a direct or indirect interest that conflicts, or possibly may conflict, with the interest of the Bank.
- 5) A director of the Bank shall not achieve or attempt to achieve any undue gain or advantage either to himself or to his relatives, partners, or associates and if such director is found guilty of making any undue gain, he shall be liable to pay an amount equal to that gain to the Bank.
- 6) A director of the Bank shall not assign his office and any assignment so made shall be void.
- 7) If a director of the company contravenes the provisions of this section such director shall be punishable with fine which shall not be less than one lakh rupees, but which may extend to five lakh rupees.
