

Terms and Conditions

1. Admizzionz Campuz is providing college admission guidance for courses and colleges in India on the basis of information provided by the applicants and their expressed areas of interest. In case an applicant is not clear about career/course options, the counsellors can guide the applicant on various options in India. The options suggested are not binding on the applicant. The final choice of a career/course is that of the applicant only. However, under no circumstance does this service provide college admission guidance and support for colleges outside India.
2. College admission guidance and support for colleges outside India will only be provided if specifically registered for Overseas College Application Services.
3. Application Support for colleges with elaborate applications (specifically Liberal Arts Colleges) which include assistance in writing essays, SOP's, answering supplement questions etc will only be provided if registered for Special Application Service for the particular college.
4. One Time Counselling (OTC) Service will provide a single interaction with a designated advisor where the queries related to careers and college admissions will be addressed. No further information will be provided after the interaction.
5. Assessments conducted at Admizzionz Campuz to assess interests are indicative of the applicant's areas of interest and these are assessed on the basis of the candidate's response at that instant and it may change over time and experience and the results are not binding on the candidate in terms of pursuit of career choice.
6. Admizzionz Campuz tries to provide the best fit for an applicant in terms of interest but this does not assure performance of the student once admitted in the college/course. The student will have to study, follow the rules and regulations of the college once admitted and fulfil the course/program/degree requirements to obtain the final certificate/degree.
7. After completing the registration process and payment of registration fee for any service, the interactions with the designated advisor will be delivered at Admizzionz Campuz Office (where available)/ Skype / FaceTime / Telephonically as convenient to the applicant.
8. Admizzionz Campuz's recommendation of options of courses/institution is solely guided by the interest/options provided by the applicant and the admission criteria of the institutions and previous years data of successful applicants.
