New Delhi: The government has earned over Rs 100 crore by providing access to Vahan and Sarathi databases to private entities, Union transport minister Nitin Gadkari informed the Parliament on Thursday.

COVID IMPACT

The government informed the Parliament that no information is available on weavers being forced to shift to other alternative sources of income during the lockdown.

"Textile sector is largely an unorganised sector hence, no such information is available," textiles minister Smriti Zubin Irani told the Rajya Sabha in reply to a question whether the weavers faced immense hardships during the lockdown due to no supp-of labourers as well as affecting all the stakeholders from farmers to traders/exporters in the value chain.

The government has conducted a study, 'Impact of Covid-19 pandemic on Indian silk industry', to ascertain the crisis caused to the sector.

"It has been observed that there was a production decline and monetary loss at every stage of the value chain," she said.

Cotton procurement

Around 1.867 million farmers benefited from Rs 26,432 crore worth of cotton procurement done by the government in the ongoing fiscal till February 3, textiles minister Smriti Zubin Irani told the Rajya Sabha.

In 2019-20, 2.15 million farmers had benefited from the government's cotton procurement of Rs 28,500 crore.

ly of raw materials, forcing a large number of weavers to shift to other sources of income, like daily labour.

"The role of the government is to create a conducive environment and provide enabling conditions for textile manufacturing in the country and help in boosting the textile sector," Irani said.

She said the Covid-19 pandemic has affected the textile sector due to restrictions on social gathering, migration
