Himachal regular schools

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Shimla: Schools in Himachal Pradesh will finally open for regular classes from February 1. Similarly, ITIs, polytechnics and engineering colleges would also open from February 1, but government colleges would open for regular classes from February 8. Online system for education under 'Har Ghar Pathshala' will also continue.

In a cabinet decision taken on Friday, it was decided that students of classes V and VIII to XII of summer closing schools would be allowed to attend school in-person from February 1 and laid down SOPs followed strictly. However, students of same classes of winter closing schools would be allowed to attend classes from February 15. The school management would ensure use of face masks, social distancing and sanitisers in the premises.

The cabinet also decided that all teachers of summer closing government schools would attend school from January 27.
