

Madhupati have moved court to cancel an earlier family agreement (entered in 1999) that relinquished their rights to the ancestral property" said a person closely connected with the case. "The grandchildren feel that they too have a right to the properties, and that it can't be denied by their parents through an agreement."

The Singhanias siblings have filed suits in the Bombay High Court in early February. In a strange coincidence, around the same time — on February 9 — Vijaypat transferred about 37.17% stake in Raymond to his youngest son Gautam Hari Singhanias.

decisions — one by the Bombay High Court and the other by Madras High Court — on the issue of permitting foreign law firms to operate in the country. Justice Kailash and Justice Kurien Joseph are dealing with the petitions.

While one court ruled that foreign lawyers can fly in and fly out of the country, the other asked the Reserve Bank of India to stop giving permission to foreign law firms to operate in India. However, the Bar Council of India said it would only allow foreign law firms and lawyers to operate in India on a reciprocal basis.

On Monday, senior advocate MN Krishnaamani said the Bar Council
