Experts to join as officers on special duty at a salary of 1.55 lakh a month

To Cut Workload, NITI Aayog Fights Consultants

By Yogima Sharmaji

New Delhi: NITI Aayog wants to hire seven consultants on special duty to carry out specific tasks in accordance with the General Financial Rules 2005, a move that will reduce the workload of vice-chairman Arvind Panagariya and other members. The consultancies, who are expected to do research and policy work in social sectors, IT, transportation, legal issues, and help the vice-chairman in day-to-day work, may get a tenure of 1 year.

The NITI Aayog is short of many consultants and experts in many areas is restricting the think tank’s work. In this connection, the Aayog has decided to hire consultants. The consultants to be designated as OSD initial-time (OSD) at a monthly remuneration of 1.55 lakh a month. The consultants will be experts in areas of economics and so-
