

Axis Bank hosts Jobex, a mega job fair, for retired personnel and children of Delhi Police

- Over 2,000 candidates applied for jobs offered by almost 80 firms
- Delhi Police Commissioner Mr. Amulya Patnaik and his wife Mrs. Suchana Patnaik attended the event

New Delhi, 14th December, 2019: Axis Bank, India's third largest private sector bank, has hosted 'Jobex' – an exclusive mega job fair, with an objective to provide employment opportunities for the retired personnel and children of Delhi Police. The job fair, organized at New Police Line Grounds, Model town today, was inaugurated by Mrs. Suchana Patnaik, President – Police Families Welfare Society (PFWS), Delhi and closed by Shri Amulya Patnaik, Commissioner, Delhi Police. Almost 80 companies across sectors like, BFSI, manufacturing, IT & Security offered jobs to the applicants.

Around 2,000 candidates, comprising freshers and retired personnel were provided with registration forms by Delhi police officials. These forms were then uploaded on an online portal which the hiring companies could access. Interviews were conducted at the event and the minimum salary offered was Rs. 15,000. This year there was a separate registration desk for the walk-in candidates.

Mr. Amulya Patnaik, Commissioner of Police Delhi said: "Axis Bank has been taking this initiative in collaboration with the Delhi Police and Police Families Welfare Society (PFWS), providing such an employment platform. It is a delight to be a part of a program that has helped the Delhi Police community by creating opportunities for the children of serving and retired Delhi Police Personnel. It is commendable how they are building a stage for not only youngsters, but also ex-policemen. I would like to congratulate all the selected candidates and wish them a very bright future."

Mr. Nuti Chakravathy, Regional Branch Banking Head, North, Axis Bank, said: "We are glad to be able to provide our services to uniformed forces and government institutions. Axis Bank has been proudly offering products and services to cater to the needs of those who take responsibility of our well-being. This job fair is an addition to show our gratitude by providing a platform to the candidates. This program provides an ideal platform for the interviewees to showcase their skills and find the right kind of jobs for themselves."
